

YOUR SOUL MATTERS & it is time to make place for some meaningful questions !

Choose the ingredients for your own „Integrity is ...“ interview:

Do You know the word „integrity“?

How would you describe integrity for someone who doesn't know the word?

What is integrity for you personally?

How important is integrity for you on your personal scale of values (can you give it a number between 1 and 10)?

Is there somebody especially of integrity for you and what for?

How of integrity do you perceive yourself (a number from 1 - 10)?

Do you think that integrity is important when you think of the challenges of our time?

What would be possible when the level of integrity would rise significantly on the whole planet (for yourself/ in general)?

Are there special issues that you face in your private life/ your current work situation in terms of integrity and how do you deal with them?

Does the society you currently live in allow you to live in integrity with your values?

You are ... What role has integrity in your projects?

What are from your personal experience and your special knowledge the most important ingredients for integrity building?

Is integrity something you have been born with or is it rather something you've learned?

Is there anything you would like to add or share in terms of integrity that wasn't covered by the questions so far?
